This two-week summer camp, held July 22 – 26 and July 29 – August 2 with a graduation ceremony held on August 4, is located at Enzian Theater and open to children entering grades 5-8. No previous experience with filmmaking or equipment is required.

Please email Hollie Mahadeo at hmahadeo@enzian.org with any questions regarding KidFest.
Create your own movie at Young Filmmakers' Summer Camp! Experience the art of filmmaking as you study cinematic techniques, learn about the exciting history of filmmaking, and dive into the production of an independent film. After wrapping the shoot, see your work projected on the big screen with your fellow filmmakers, family, and friends.

In addition to learning aspects of making a film (script writing, character development, shooting, editing, and more), students will learn a brief summary of film history and why film is still an important form of expression today.

Tuition is $500
$475 Enzian Film Society members

TUITION INCLUDES
All instruction and supplies
Catered lunches and snacks each day of camp
Red-carpet event for family & friends to see the final projects premiere on the big Enzian screen
