After the members of a team of scientists (Harold Ramis, Dan Aykroyd, Bill Murray) lose their cushy positions at a university in New York City, they decide to become “ghostbusters” to wage a high-tech battle with the supernatural for money. They stumble upon a gateway to another dimension, a doorway that will release evil upon the city. The Ghostbusters must now save New York from complete destruction.

USA, 1984, 105 minutes, Rated PG, Directed by Ivan Reitman

Cult Classics: The Monster Squad

October 4th at 9:30PM

The end of the world starts at midnight. Count Dracula adjourns to Earth, accompanied by Frankenstein’s Monster, the Wolfman, the Mummy, and the Gillman. The creatures are in search of a powerful amulet that will grant them power to rule the world. Our heroes – the Monster Squad – are the only ones daring to stand in their way.

USA, 1987, 82 minutes, Rated PG-13, Directed by Fred Dekker

Saturday Matinee Classics: Rosemary’s Baby

October 8th at 12PM

Rosemary and Guy Woodhouse move into an apartment in an opulent but gothic building in Manhattan. Their landlord Edward “Hutch” Hutchins attempts to dissuade them from doing so: the building has an unsavory history. They discover that their neighbors are a very friendly elderly couple named Roman and Minnie Castevet, and Guy begins to spend a great deal of time with them. Strange things begin to happen: a young woman Rosemary meets in the laundry commits suicide, Rosemary has strange dreams and hears strange noises, and Guy becomes remote and distant. Then Rosemary falls pregnant and begins to suspect that her neighbors have special plans for her child.

USA, 1968, 136 min, Rated R, Directed by Roman Polanski

Midnight Movies: Phantasm: Ravager

October 8th at 11:59PM

Phantasm: Ravager is the concluding chapter of Don Coscarelli's always independent, unexpected and subversive Phantasm film series. After spanning four decades, Phantasm Ravager completes the story of intrepid ex-ice cream vendor Reggie (Reggie Bannister, a veteran of all five Phantasm films) in his lifelong pursuit of his nemesis, the malevolent Tall Man. In this final entry, Reggie is forced to confront the mysteries of death which always lie at the dark heart of the Phantasm saga. With actor Angus Scrimm's recent passing, Phantasm Ravager stands as the final on-screen acting performance of this iconic horror star. For the first time, Phantasm creator Don Coscarelli has turned over the directing reins to a new, first-time director in Emmy-nominated animator David Hartman. The entire original cast is back including A. Michael Baldwin, Bill Thornbury, Reggie Bannister, Kat Lester, and Angus Scrimm.

USA, 2016, 87 minutes, Unrated, Directed by David Hartman

Cult Classics: Candyman

October 11th at 9:30PM

Skeptical graduate student Helen Lyle (Virginia Madsen) befriends Anne-Marie McCoy (Vanessa Williams) while researching superstitions in a housing project on Chicago's Near North Side. From Anne-Marie, Helen learns about the Candyman (Tony Todd), a knife-wielding figure of urban legend that some of her neighbors believe to be responsible for a recent murder. After a mysterious man matching the Candyman's description begins stalking her, Helen comes to fear that the legend may be all too real.

USA, 1992, 99 minutes, Rated R, Directed by Bernard Rose

Popcorn Flicks: House of Wax

October 13th at 8PM | FREE in Central Park!

This film is a part of our Popcorn Flicks series, which takes place in Central Park, Winter Park once a month and it's FREE and open to the public!

Wax sculptor Henry (Vincent Price) is horrified to learn that his business partner, Matthew (Roy Roberts), plans on torching their wax museum to collect on the insurance policy. Henry miraculously survives a fiery confrontation with Matthew and re-emerges some years hence with a museum of his own. But when the appearance of Henry's new wax sculptures occurs at the same time that a number of corpses vanish from the city morgue, art student Sue Allen (Phyllis Kirk) begins suspecting wrongdoing.

USA, 1953, 88 minutes, Unrated, Directed by Andre DeToth

Midnight Movies: The Greasy Strangler

The Los Angeles-set tale follows Ronnie, a man who runs a Disco Walking tour along with his browbeaten son, Brayden. When a sexy, alluring woman comes to take the tour, it begins a competition between father and son for her attentions. It also signals the appearance of an oily, slimy inhuman maniac who stalks the streets at night and strangles the innocent, soon dubbed 'The Greasy Strangler.'

USA, 2016, 93 minutes, Unrated, Directed by Jim Hosking

Book to Big Screen: Carrie

October 16th at 11AM

40th Anniversary Screening!

The Maitland Public Library and Enzian Theater are excited to announce that the 2nd installment of our joint program, Book To Big Screen, will feature Stephen King's Carrie. Join us at the library on Oct. 4th at 7PM for a book discussion and special effects makeup demo. Then, watch the 1976 film at Enzian on October 16th at 11AM.

In this chilling adaptation of Stephen King's horror novel, withdrawn and sensitive teen Carrie White (Academy Award-nominee Sissy Spacek) faces taunting from classmates at school and abuse from her fanatically pious mother (Academy Award-nominee Piper Laurie) at home. When strange occurrences start happening around Carrie, she begins to suspect that she has supernatural powers. Invited to the prom by the empathetic Tommy Ross (William Katt), Carrie tries to let her guard down, but things eventually take a dark and violent turn.

USA, 1976, 98 minutes, Rated R, Directed by Brian De Palma

Cult Classics: The Lost Boys

October 18th at 9:30PM

Teenage brothers Michael (Jason Patric) and Sam (Corey Haim) move with their mother (Dianne Wiest) to a small town in northern California. While the younger Sam meets a pair of kindred spirits in geeky comic-book nerds Edward (Corey Feldman) and Alan (Jamison Newlander), the angst-ridden Michael soon falls for Star (Jami Gertz) — who turns out to be in thrall to David (Kiefer Sutherland), leader of a local gang of vampires. Sam and his new friends must save Michael and Star from the undead.

USA, 1987, 97 minutes, Rated R, Directed by Joel Schumacher
