

The following films from the 25th annual Brouhaha Film & Video Showcase were selected by the jury to represent the “Best of Brouhaha” in the 2017 Florida Film Festival (April 21 – 30):

THE D IN DAVID

Directed by Michelle Yi & Yaron Farkash, Ringling College of Art and Design

A self-conscious statue whose nude body is made fun of by the other museum artworks leaves his podium to remedy the problem.

BAD TOWN

Directed by Daniel Smith, FSU

An angry young punk band fights their way to the dive bar across town to play one last show together before their drummer moves away.

CARTOON CHARACTERS

Directed by Carey Kight

The morning after a night of revelry, an affecting twentysomething tries to usher his one-night-stand out of the house as quickly as possible.

THE WOODEN MANNEQUIN

Directed by Stephanie Hunton, Maitland Middle School

A girl finds a wooden doll with a number 7 on it in the bushes and brings it home. Winner of the “Best of Show” award at the Reel Short Teen Film Festival.

THE GOAT ON THE ROOF

Directed by Erin Smyth, FSU

In this unusual animated documentary, the director’s grandmother recounts her life with her husband through the years and the American Dream they built together.

DOROTHY'S VIDEO APPLICATION

Directed by Sara Ambra, UCF

A video application for entry into "Our Lady of Good Counsel Homes A Place of Assisted Living for Old People Who Need Assistance Living."

FLORA

Directed by Drina Andre, FSU

Struggling with identity, Flora, a transgender woman, decides to come out to her family at a small cafe. After she is met with less than acceptance she escapes to what she thinks will be a safe place...the bathroom.

BLACKFACE

Directed by Malcom Baity, FSU

Set in 1881 New York, an educated blackface actor must face the lies he's told when his father unexpectedly shows up for what he believes will be a Shakespeare play.

RUPEE RUN

Directed by Tarun Lakshminarayanan, Ringling College of Art and Design

Two dirt poor rival street performers chase after a measly coin through the streets of India.

FOR WILL

Directed by Grayson Goga & Grace Stalley, FSU

Will Creeley, the son of acclaimed Black Mountain Poet Robert Creeley, reflects on the legacy of his father as he transitions into starting his own family.

BURP

Directed by Benjamin L. Gill, UCF

Logan has a problem... a digestive problem. It has all but ruined his chances of finding someone. Love, as it turns out, is messy.

DUST BUDDIES

Directed by Beth Tomashek & Sam Wade, Ringling College of Art and Design

Dust bunnies Fuzz and Lint battle an evil maid who comes to clean the house and sucks Fuzz into her vacuum. Lint must overcome his fears to rescue his friend.

AMERIGO – Audience Award Winner!

Directed by Todd Thompson, Winner – February FilmSlam

A true story based on a trite but important event in the life of Amerigo Costanzo Storace.