"Heartfelt, witty and provocative...an engrossing, lighthearted spiritual journey."

- Ave Offer, THE NYC MOVIE GURU

ALL ABOUT THE LEVKOVICHES

"A touching family drama (with gentle humor) where a deeply buried tragedy slowly unfolds so natural healing can start...an intimate, sweet, sour, well-rounded story."

- Gabor Por, JEWISH FILM FESTIVALS

SHOSHANA

"Michael Winterbottom finally delivers his long-gestating political thriller, and it's worth the wait."

- Alissa Simon, VARIETY

ORLANDO SCIENCE CENTER DIGITAL ADVENTURE THEATER

While on a European tour in 1937, American Jew and accomplished tap dancer Harold May (Jeremy Piven, HBO's Entourage) is scouted by a German attache (Robert Carlyle, Trainspotting), offering a huge sum to perform in Berlin. Once in Germany, the troupe discovers that the show is an exclusive performance for Hitler himself. Based on a short story by Arthur Miller, this masterful drama was first runner-up for the Best Feature Audience Award at the Miami Film Festival. USA, 2023, 112 MIN, DIRECTED BY SHIRA PIVEN, IN ENGLISH, GERMAN, YIDDISH & HUNGARIAN WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES

FLORIDA PREMIERE!

When Noam, a closeted, religious teenager, finds a love letter from before the Holocaust written to his grandfather presumably by another man, he discovers that he might not be alone. With the help of his high-school crush, Noam sets out to find the mysterious author of the letter and uncover both his grandfather's identity as well as his own. Winner—Best Narrative Film, Los Angeles Jewish Film Festival. USA, 2024, 91 MIN, DIRECTED BY JEREMY BORISON

After three successful years living and working in America, French-Jewish actor and comedian Gad Elmaleh decides to move back home to Paris, ostensibly to see his family while trying to hide the real reason for his visit: he has decided to convert to Catholicism. Inspired by the director's own fraught relationship to the Jewish faith and starring Elmaleh's real-life family, this genuinely funny, semi-autobiographical comedy is a heart-warming and charming story about faith, family and acceptance. FRANCE, 2023, 93 MIN, DIRECTED BY GAD ELMALEH, IN FRENCH WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES

SOUTHEAST PREMIERE!

A slice of apple cake at a tasting for her upcoming wedding catapults Judy (writer/producer Emily Nash), a self-proclaimed "Jew-ish" woman, back in time to her life as a 13-year-old preparing for her dreaded bat mitzvah. USA, 2023, 11 MIN, DIRECTED BY EMILY LERER

EMILY NASH WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE FOR A Q&A FOLLOWING THE FILM.

After his wife's death, a stubborn boxing coach agrees to allow his estranged Orthodox Jewish son from Israel to sit shiva, as long as he brings the grandson he has never met. As past conflicts resurface, they embark on an unexpected journey of self-reflection and reconciliation, while the boy deals with his own grief and obsession that grandma's spirit is still in the house. Winner of the FIPRESCI Prize at the 2024 Sofia International Film Festival, this heartwarming dramatic comedy is set in contemporary Budapest. HUNGARY, 2024, 85 MIN, DIRECTED BY ADAM BREIER, IN HUNGARIAN & HEBREW WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES

SHOSHANA

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4 AT 6:45 PM AT ENZIAN THEATER

Prolific writer-director Michael Winterbottom's (A Mighty Heart, The Trip series) passion project 15 years in the making and based on real people and events, this historical drama tells the story of a cross-cultural relationship between a ranking member of the British Palestine Police Force and a young Jewish woman, exploring the way extremism and violence push people apart while forcing them to choose sides. Set in Tel Aviv during the British Mandate for Palestine just before the founding of the state of Israel, this troubled love story is a smartly crafted and rigorously acted plea for tolerance and compassion.

UK/ITALY, 2023, 119 MIN, DIRECTED BY MICHAEL WINTERBOTTOM, IN ENGLISH, HEBREW, ARABIC & RUSSIAN WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES
