ENZIAN ANNOUNCES THE RESIGNATION OF DAVID SCHILLHAMMER AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Orlando, FL (December 17, 2018) – The Board of Directors of Enzian Theater announces the resignation of Executive Director David Schillhammer, who will transition to be Executive Director of the Brevard Symphony Orchestra in Melbourne in mid-January.

Speaking on behalf of Enzian, Board Chairman Allan E. Keen commented, “Enzian thanks David for his two years of leadership. Our beloved theater continues to receive even greater support and affection from our community and we will always remain grateful to Schillhammer for his contribution. Enzian has always known that music is David’s first love and we wish him well in his new endeavor in Brevard.”

David Schillhammer commented, “I have loved every minute of my two years at Enzian, and am grateful to all the committed individuals – board, staff, volunteers, and patrons – who help make this theater so important to Central Florida. I will miss this unique oasis but my pull toward the orchestra business is quite strong, and I look forward to my new adventure with the Brevard Symphony.”

We wish David great success. His last day as Enzian’s Executive Director will be January 16, 2019.
